DRIVING SERVICE DELIVERY THROUGH ADVOCACY.

Presented by:

Tolutope Agunloye
Senior Project Officer, BudgIT

tracka

is an online platform launched on the 22nd of July 2014

The goal is to create access to data for active citizens interested in following the budgetary provisions for projects in their communities.

RELIEF MATERIALS

The platform while leveraging on open data and the influence of an active, existing social media presence, will bring people with common interests together to share photos, videos, documents and also post comments on existing projects.

To achieve this goals, we have engaged Project tracking officers to monitor grassroots projects in different communities and partnered with Civil Society Organisations across the Federation to aid projects completion.

20 Focus States

Kogi, Ogun, Oyo,
Enugu, Ekiti, Osun, Sokoto,

Kano, Edo, Delta, Kaduna,
Niger, Gombe, Lagos, Ondo,
Imo, Cross River, Kebbi Akwa-Ibom.

This approach encourages both online and offline engagement to form robust discussions around projects execution. By engaging their elected representatives in the implementation of the projects in their respective locations.

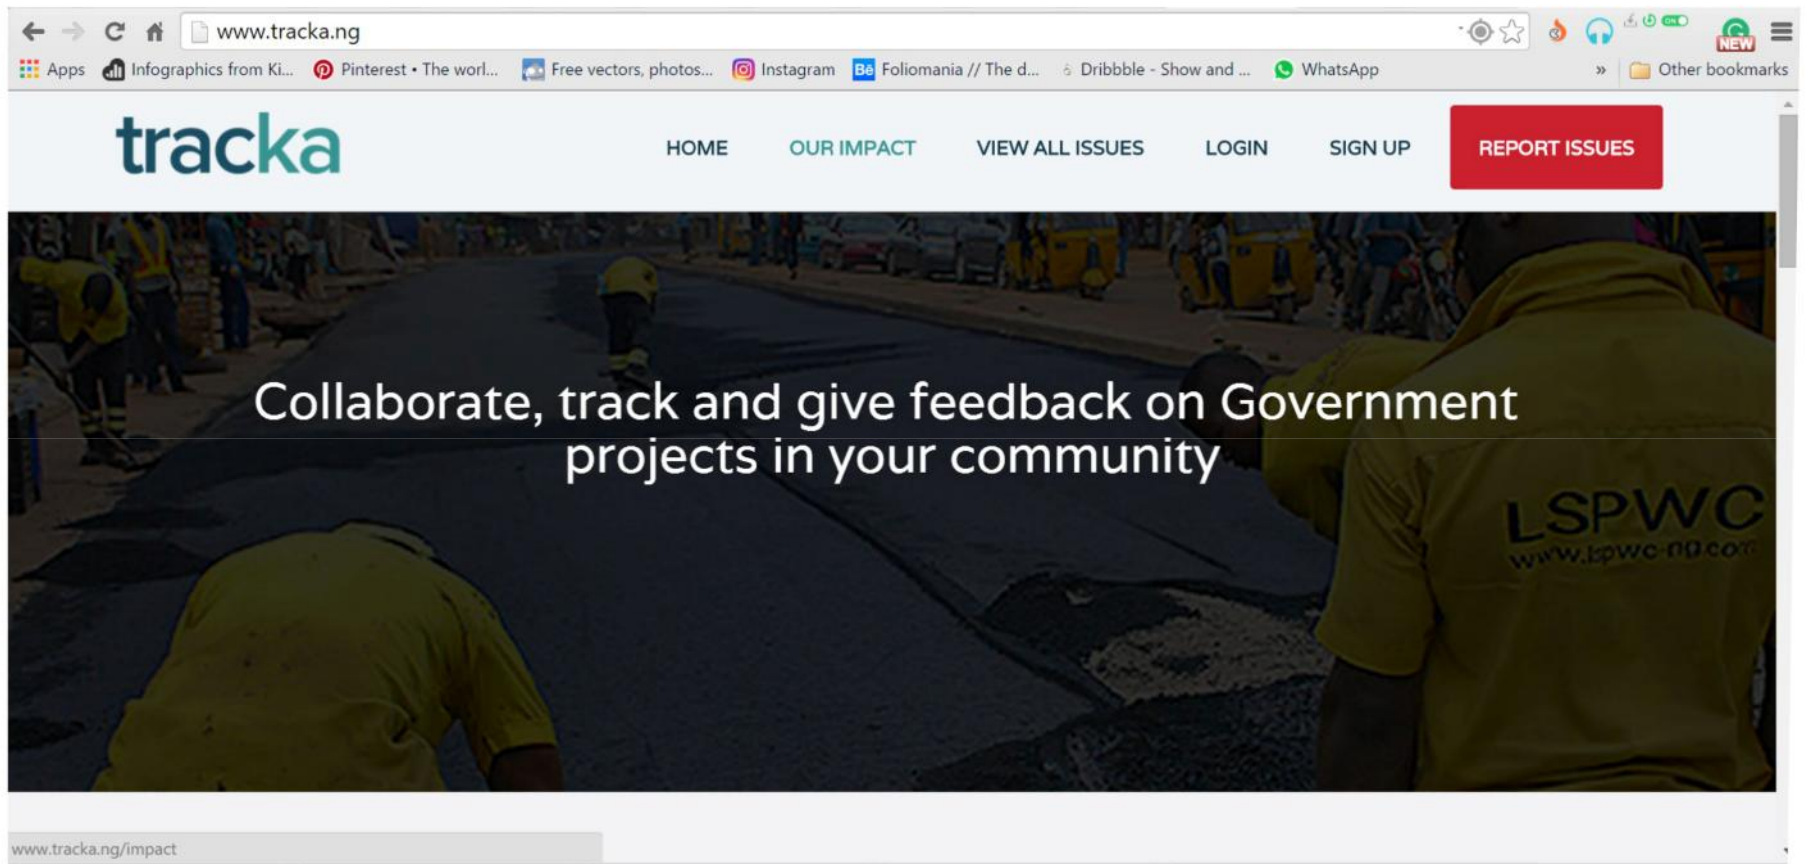

The platform make use of interactive tools such as The Web, Mobile web, Applications and SMS to encourage citizens to track campaign promises, contracts, budgets and issues.

WHAT YOU ARE ABOUT TO DO
 As a citizen, you should participate in government issues. You should know what government has approved to be done in your community and track them. If you have an issue that affects your community, you should report it to elected officials or persons responsible for them.
 Tracka enables you to track campaign promises, contracts, budgets and issues. Upload pictures, videos and share them with your fellow citizens. This is how to be an active citizen.
